BOYS & GIRLS CLUB OF BURBANK AND GEV SHINE AT THE KEYSTYONE CONFERENCE

(March, 2017) Members of the Boys & Girls Club of Burbank and GEV dance team were chosen to perform at the national Keystone Conference in Chicago on March 2-4, 2017.

Keystone is a dynamic teen program that affords teens an opportunity to gain valuable leadership and service experience. This year's conference attracted more than 3000 youth, some from as far away as Japan. Also in attendance was Jim Clark, the CEO of Boys & Girls Clubs of America.

The dance team performed two different numbers, at both the awards ceremony and the closing ceremony. As headliners, they also were able to attend some of the break-out sessions geared toward innovative ways to give back.

Our dance team was so honored to be chosen to perform" said Creative Arts director, Arpineh Khodagholian. "And it was a bonus that one of the dance numbers, a duet, performed to the song "Slip" was choreographed by a fellow dance member Angela Ayvazyan." The other dance was a hip hop remix to "Deep in the Heart of Texas, which was created by Emily Rose, a member of the Clipper Dance Team.

We are so proud of our members. It was great to see them in the spotlight in Chicago", added Khodagholian.
